We joy, welcome Violinist Amy Camillo, into our midst this morning and we thank her for sharing her musical gifts with us. Amy currently serves this congregation in a variety of roles, including Deacon and Chancel Choir Accompanist. Once again, we thank Amy for her willingness to share in worship this morning.

The pieces you will hear this morning are all vocal solo works that have been adapted for use as piano and violin duets. The texts of these pieces are shared below, so that you might reflect on the words, as the music is played. Enjoy!

All That I Am – By William Himes*All that I am, all I can be, all that I have, all that is me, Accept and use, Lord, as you would choose, Lord, right now today.Take every passion, every skill, take all my dreams and bend them to your will.
My all I give, Lord, for you I'll live, Lord, come what may.Often I come with my problems and cares, running to you when distressed.
But I must bring you the whole of my life; Lord, I must give you my best.Life has no purpose unless it is yours; life without you has no goal.
All that fulfills me is doing your will, knowing that you're in control.*How Lovely Is Thy Dwelling Place – By John Carter and Based on Psalm 84:1-4*How lovely is Thy dwelling place, O Lord of Hosts!
My soul longs, yea faints for the courts of the Lord.
My heart and flesh sings for joy to the living God.Even the sparrow finds a home,
And the swallow a nest, where she may lay her young.
At the altars, O Lord of hosts, my King and my God.
Blessed are those who dwell in Thy house, ever singing Thy praise!*The Lord is My Light – By Frances Allitsen and Based on Psalm 27*The Lord is my light and my salvation. Whom, then shall I fear?
The Lord is the strength of my life. Of whom then shall I be afraid?Though a host of men were laid against me, yet shall not my heart be afraid;
And tho' there rose up war against me, yet will I put my trust in Him.For in the time of trouble, He shall hide me in His tabernacle.
Yea, in the secret places of His dwelling shall He hide me,
And set me up upon a rock of stone.*
