MUSICAL NOTES

The Anthem, *O Master, Let Me Walk with Thee, is a beautiful setting of the treasured text by Washington Gladden and the favorite tune of many, MARYTON, written by H. Percy Smith.

Dr. Gladden originally wrote this text, in 1879, as a poem to be printed in the publication, Sunday Afternoon. His religious philosophy was stated simply in one sentence, "Religion is nothing but friendship with God and with man." Many have said that this text portrays his philosophy in such a wonderful way, and yet it says even more.

O Master, let me walk with Thee – In lowly paths of service free;
Tell me Thy secret; help me bear the strain of toil, the fret of care.

Help me the slow of heart to move – By some clear winning word of love;
Teach me the wayward feet to stay, and guide them in the homeward way.

Teach me Thy patience; still with thee – In closer, dearer company,
In work that keeps faith sweet and strong, in trust that triumphs over wrong.

In hope that sends a shining ray – Far down the future's broadening way;
In peace that only Thou can give, with Thee, O Master, let me live.

The Offertory Anthem, *One Bread, One Body, is a setting of the communion hymn of the same name, by John B. Foley, S.J. Mark Hayes, one of the great musical forces in church music today, has utilized his incomparable piano skills to create an accompaniment that not only carries the text, but easily allows us to create a picture of what is being expressed. Based upon 1 Corinthians 10:17 "For we, though many, are one bread and one body" and Galatians 3:28, "There is neither Jew nor Greek, slave nor free, male nor female, for you are all one in Christ Jesus", this text calls us to be reminded of our unity as we gather to share the sacrament of Holy Communion.

Refrain: One bread, one body, one Lord of all, one cup of blessing which we bless.

And we, though many, throughout the earth, we are one body in this one Lord.

Gentile or Jew, servant or free, woman or man, no more. (Refrain)

Many the gifts, many the works, one in the Lord of all. (Refrain)

The Anthem, *Go Ye Into All the World, by Eugene Butler, so strongly states the basic idea of mission and evangelism, and with the addition of the Great Commandment adds yet another important dimension to our calling to minister to the waiting world.

Go ye into all the world and preach My gospel to ev'ry creature!
Go ye into all the world and preach My gospel to ev'ry creature!
Go ye into all the world, Go ye into all the world and preach My gospel!

Jesus said, "This is the great commandment:
That ye love one another as I have loved you.
Greater love hath no man than this; that he lay down his life for his friends."

Go ye into all the world and preach My gospel to ev'ry creature!
Go ye into all the world and preach My gospel to ev'ry creature!
Go ye into all the world, Go ye into all the world and preach My gospel!

"Let not your heart be troubled, If you believe in God, you believe in Me!"

Go ye into all the world and preach My gospel to ev'ry creature!
Go ye into all the world and preach My gospel to ev'ry creature!
Go ye into all the world, Go ye into all the world and preach My gospel!
Go ye into all the world, Go ye into all the world and preach! Go!
