Liturgist: This is the Lord's doing, it is marvelous in our eyes.

PRAYER OF PRAISE

*HYMN No. 144

Alleluia! Sing to Jesus!

*CONFESSION OF SIN (In Unison)

God of Life, you reveal yourself to us in ways and in places where we least expect to find you. Amidst the decay of death and the paralysis of fear, we discover your bold and living presence among us, and we begin to see just how good the story of our salvation really is. Yet we turn away from you, refusing to acknowledge your gracious presence among us. We prefer clinging to our fears, to embracing your hope, forgive us for turning away from you. Empower us by your Spirit to embrace your word of Life in a world still ruled by death. Captivate us with the Good News of your sure salvation through Jesus Christ, our risen Lord. Cause our hearts to burn within us as we walk with him. That we may declare with assurance and live in confidence that all is well and all shall be well.

(Let each worshipper pray silently)
