

Jonathan, Pastor:

Jonathan Fettig received a BA in History and Theology from Hanover College and earned his M. Div. at Eastern Seminary in Philadelphia. Jonathan loves spending time with friends and those in our church family (especially if food with gravy is involved!). He has been happily married to Melissa for ten years. Jonathan has a tremendous passion for teaching and preaching –especially the Good News of Jesus Christ. Jonathan considers it a joy to serve with the excellent group of believers here at the First Presbyterian Church, and has hopes of better serving them by improving his softball swing before the next church league season starts.
